

“Nothing Kills A Bad Product Faster Than Good Advertising”

We can't remember what famous ad genius said this. But in the spirit of the holidays we'd like to recommend extinction for a few products we've seen advertised recently on late night.

Eggnog Flavored Red Bull

If you don't drink alcohol now, you will want to after tasting this.

The Charlie Sheen Chia Pet

Another reason to dislike Martin Sheen.

Sam Adams Winter Wurst
Sausage-Flavored Beer

“Worst” would be a better way to describe it.

The Hillary Clinton Nutcracker

Let's just not go there.

Reindeer Venison Tortillas

The Taco Bell rings with a thud on this one.
